

When fractions have the same denominator, only the numerators are added or subtracted.

The denominator remains the same.

Example: $\frac{1}{3} + \frac{1}{3} = \frac{2}{3}$